Travellers and Showpeople: Recovering Migrant History Micheal O hAodha, Louise Harrington

The late-twentieth century has witnessed a particular prominence assigned to the discourses of difference and Otherness. An examination of this othering discourse as related to Travellers, Gypsies and Showpeople enumerates the projective function of the Othering process, a form of rejection and marginalisation that is the institutionalization of ideas which are seldom challenged. The history of Traveller and Gypsy Othering in Europe points to the constant re-articulation of reductionist stereotypes as applied to a wide range of nomadic peoples and the creation of a mythic Traveller/Gypsy prototype that is based on a series of endlessly repeated generalizations which gradually assume the status of an objective truth. This discourse of representation has culminated in powerful institutional attitudes, many of which have influenced official and policy responses to these minorities. This volume brings to surface the hidden histories and discourses of the peoples of the road, those migratory peoples whose unique expressions of identity have often hitherto remained occluded. We live in the era of the Other, the era of difference, the era of migration - that stranger who waits silently at the border crossing, battered suitcase in hand. Travellers and Roma are the archetypal migrants. Perennial outsiders, they are the people who have lived on society's margins for centuries. This volume explores the history of these traditionally migrant peoples within the frame of articulation that is Western literary and visual culture.
