À sombra do Plátano: crônicas de história da medicina (Portuguese Edition) Joffre Marcondes de Rezende

Este livro traz aos leitores uma coletânea de cinquenta textos que revelam episódios e personagens que fizeram parte da história da medicina. Em sua amplitude, são abordados diferentes temas, alguns sob a forma de narrativas destinadas à difusão de assuntos culturais da área médica; outros, por sua vez, expõem o posicionamento do autor a partir de uma análise cuidadosa, como em “O Símbolo da Medicina”, “O Juramento de Hipócrates”, “Curar Algumas Vezes, Aliviar Quase Sempre, Consolar Sempre”, e “Que Relação Tem Júlio César com a Operação Cesariana?”. O poder de credices é mostrado em textos como “Úlcera Péptica e a Ilusão do Conhecimento”, “O Ato Médico através da História” e “Modismos na História da Medicina”. O título escolhido para obra tem forte relação com o tema proposto, pois, segundo a tradição, foi embaixo de um plátano, na ilha grega de Cós, que Hipócrates ensinou a seus discípulos os preceitos da medicina.
