Pursued as a Union spy within Confederate territory, Corrie's desperate attempt to escape on horseback was cut short by gunfire.

As she awakens from unconsciousness, Corrie finds herself in the care of a young man who, like Corrie, is attempting to determine what to do next with his life. With his help, she begins to pick up the pieces of her past, and resume her role in the war torn United States. As she finds answers about herself, Corrie is faced with life's most important questions, learning more about God's goodness and faithfulness in the midst of this new battle with the unknown.
