In some instances, the releasing agents, if different from the producers, and the American distributors of films of foreign origin are included. The Index includes also the renewal claimants of pictures listed in the fourth section. For these pictures the renewal registration number beginning with the symbol R follows the title in the Index.

Bibliographic Data. - In the first section, each main entry includes, as applicable: 1) title; 2) production statement; 3) date of release; 4) physical description of the film; i.e., running time or number of reels, width, etc.; 5) series to which the individual picture belongs; 6) published literary work on which the film was based; 7) a summary of the content of the film; 8) the leading credits and actors. Descriptive information regarding motion pictures is taken from press books, synopses, cutting continuities, reviews, etc., verified insofar as possible by comparison with the film itself.

In the fourth section, "Renewals," each main entry includes: 1) title; 2) a description which gives the length of the film in reels; and 3) the name of the author, which is usually the original producing company.

For serial entries in both the first and fourth sections, information relating to the entire serial precedes that relating to individual numbers or episodes of the serial.

The symbol is followed, for published motion pictures and published filmstrips, by: 1) the name of the copyright claimant; 2) the date of publication as given in the copyright application; and 3) the copyright registration number. For unpublished motion pictures, the copyright symbol is followed by: 1) the name of the copyright claimant; 2) the date on which the last of all of the items required to complete registration (i.e., each of the following: title, description, representative prints, application and fee) was received in the Copyright Office; and 3) the copyright registration number. Any information contained in the copyright application or in the copy of the work itself which relates to the registration of an earlier version of the work is given in brief form at the end of the entry.

In the case of each entry the name of the copyright claimant is that given at the time of registration. Any information relating to subsequent changes of ownership recorded in the Copyright Office can be ascertained upon request and upon payment of the statutory search fee to the Register of Copyrights.

Deposit of Copies. - In the case of every copyright entry listed in this part of the Catalog, except in the case of renewal copyrights, the deposit of copies (or copy) as required by sections 12, 13, or 215 of Title 17 of the United States Code has been made.
