Don't Believe Your Lying Eyes is the third outing for intrepid African-American newspaper reporter Darryl Billups, whose previous escapades found him foiling a domestic terrorism plot and unmasking a cunning serial killer. In what just may be his biggest story yet, Darryl is called to cover a multiple homicide at a Baltimore storage facility. Authorities suspect the carnage is somehow linked to the contents of storage unit 25, where a young woman's mummified body—clad in bloodstained lingerie and opulent platinum-and-diamond jewelry—was recently discovered. The fact that someone was willing to risk the lives of five innocent people following the corpse's discovery tells Darryl that he's on to something big—and that's before the body mysteriously disappears from the medical examiner's office. Determined to find the truth, he joins forces with a hard-nosed female detective. Together they uncover a decades-old rivalry that reaches the highest levels of Baltimore politics. Novelist Blair S. Walker has been praised by USA Today for his “keen knack for entertaining,” and Don't Believe Your Lying Eyes doesn't disappoint!
