All Lilly Brown ever wanted is a family of her own to love. When a strange man arrives with information about the mother Lilly never knew, her heart burns with hope. But how can an orphan girl claim a birthright in one of the wealthiest families in New Orleans? Marie Bordeaux will have nothing of it. To protect herself and her fortune, she relies on her lawyer, Andrew Desmond, a longtime friend and loyal advocate. Yet something in Lilly's outrageous proclamation rings true in Andrew's ears--and in his heart. Can Andrew discover the truth behind Lilly's buried past? Will he be able to convince Lilly that her dream of love for the future can come true?
