You Can Learn How to Be the Woman You Want to Be Frances Kay, Nicola Stevens

Higher standards of living and broader opportunities have not made women happier. Above all, women do want to be happy! Here we explain how to get there. Peppereed with wit, founded on experience, backed by research and delivered with a refreshing dose of realism, here's wise advice from two women who certainly have all they want. It's a new perspective on how to avoid the inevitable failure created by unrealistic expectation. It shows women how to make decisions that help them achieve the dreams they set for themselves. And more important, how to identify goals set by others that they are never going to achieve.
