Christian Adventure book. A band of disabled youngsters become pirates in an odyssey granted by God. They travel around the world seeking treasure while they themselves are hunted down. They find more than gold and jewels as they come to understand what their lives are about in God's sight. Very unique and exciting and sometimes scary, leaving you on cliff-hangers. Author seeks to make more parent/child time in home by writing this book, but it could be read alone by teens. Previously published and now re-published under slightly different name. Third book in a series of 'Little Pegleg the Pirate' books.
