Bloody Kings and Killer Queens of London (Of London series) Natasha Narayan
There's no doubt about it, London has always attracted a better class of royal killer. But just how bloody were they? Among other favorite royal baddies, in this book you'll find Henry VIII—Husband from Hell, or just a man with a big heart?; Richard III—Murdering uncle or misunderstood softie?; Elizabeth I—Vengeful harpie or brilliant babe?; King John—Rotten ruler or just a shortie with a height complex? With body counts and torture tallies for each king and queen, you can decide for yourselves which one was the capital's most murderous monarch.
