Colombian Retribution revolves around the furious reaction of the Colombian Cartel to those who thwarted their earlier importation of drugs into the UK. A plan is hatched in Cartagena at the highest level of the cartel and a paid assassin is sent first of all to France where he murders three people connected to the importation of drugs as they were transported through France. The assassin then travels via the cross-channel ferry to Dover and onwards to Norfolk where he murders four more people but misses the one person he wanted to kill, ex customs officer, Sarah Munday. By now The Serious Organised Crime Agency, aware of the man's activities set in motion a plan to isolate and expose him to arrest. Ultimately, the killer travels to Brighton & Hove and murders a Police Community Support Officer before he eventually tracks Detective Constable John Ridge to Brighton Town Hall where he finally comes face-to-face with his nemises. A violent encounter takes place in the main hall between the assassin and Ridge before moving downstairs to the Victorian male cell block in the old police station, where the situation reaches its bloody climax.
