Straight Astray (Transference) Alessio Zanelli

'Good poetry puts the reader in every poem. It is we - along with the poet - who love and lose, who tremble with longing, awe, and sadness, who marvel at the inevitable duplicity of beauty, the betrayals of time. ... For someone self-taught in English, Mr. Zanelli has an admirable vocabulary ... Most other poets would be happy to have written half of these poems. Most readers will be glad to have read them all.' PHIL WAGNER, The Iconoclast
