Richie never expected to meet his brother's wife this way. From all Jack had said, Katy was a man's worst nightmare. When she arrives in town, insisting she and Jack have a daughter—and that Jack kidnapped her—Richie refuses to believe her story. But something isn't right. Could his brother really have been the man Katy says he was?

Despite their differences, Katy and Richie must work together to find the truth—and the child. Will God bring peace in the midst of this storm, or will the evil set in motion by an unscrupulous man prevail?
